A Day in the life of a Secondary 1 Student

Hi Stella!

Stella is going to take us through a typical day at school for a Secondary 1 student at RRHS. Students in Secondary 1 follow a schedule that keeps them with one teacher for ELA, History, Geography, and ERC. They have 3 levels of French to choose from, Base, Enrichie, or Langue Maternelle. All of our Secondary 1 students will spend time in each of our different Art options, and they round out their schedule with Phys ed, Math, and Science.

Getting to school...

Still bundled up, Stella is off the bus and heading in for class

Before the bell...

Drop your stuff at your locker and hang out with friends for a bit.

Hard at work

Secondary 1 students will stay with the same core teacher for ELA, His/Geo, and ERC. They also take Math, Science, French, Phys Ed, and Exploration of the Arts.

Transitions

RRHS has transitions between classes with enough time to get to your locker, get to your next class and even snap a quick selfie.

Don't forget Theme Days!

Student council has many fun theme days like Halloween. Don't forget to take time to dress up and possibly win some treats.

Lunch time

RRHS takes a 55 minute lunch break which plenty of time to eat, maybe play a little soccer outside, basketball in the gym, or just go for a stroll around the school with your friends.

Passions

Depending on what day of the cycle it is, you may be in study hall, with a teacher for remediation, or exploring one of our passion courses.

TR / Study Hall

TR or Targeted Remediation, is when a teacher selects a small group of students to work with on a specific concept or topic. Study hall is for independent homework and studying.

Last block of the day

RRHS has one more full class in the afternoon. Each of our classes are 67 minutes long. Stella finishes her day with gym class playing a game of soccer.

Time to head home...

Many of our Secondary 1's are nervous about missing the bus. There is nothing to worry about, for the first week we have staff members outside helping everyone find their bus, and nobody leaves until everyone is on their bus.
